PRODUCT DETAILS

APPEARANCE DISPLAY

Product Three View Display

front display

- A flat workbench, lighting fixtures, dispensing valves, pressure regulating valves, and pressure gauges that showcase the daily operation of the equipment

side view

- In addition to the work surface displayed on the front, the side display allows for a more intuitive view of most of the device's functional areas, as well as the overall device

Rear view

- From the perspective of the back of the machine equipment, the upper part is the material tank and air pipe, and the lower part is the cylinder and cylinder gauge. The cylinder is mainly used for air pressure communication
